OVERVIEW

Bayard Roberts IV is an associate in the firm's Transactions Department, currently assisting with matters involving commercial real estate, renewable energy development, torts, commercial liability, and natural resource law. Bayard has been recognized as a Southwest Rising Star by Southwest Super Lawyers® and is listed in Best Lawyers in America®, Ones to Watch.

After graduating from St. Pius X High School in Albuquerque, Bayard was nominated for appointment to the United States Naval Academy by both Senator Jeff Bingaman and Congresswoman Heather Wilson. At the Academy, he was a member of the varsity football team, winner of four Commander-in-Chief Trophies and participated in four bowl games. He graduated with a B.S. in Economics and was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Marines Corps.

Over the next five years, Bayard deployed several times in support of Operation Enduring Freedom, including service at Camp Leatherneck, Afghanistan, where he directed aviation operations in southwest Afghanistan in support of combat, medical, and humanitarian operations. He was honorably discharged from the Marine Corps with the rank of Captain in 2015. Bayard and his wife moved home to Albuquerque, where he received his J.D. from the University of New Mexico School of Law, graduating magna cum laude.

Prior to joining Modrall Sperling, Bayard served as a judicial law clerk for Justice Gary L. Clingman at the New Mexico Supreme Court.
