OVERVIEW

Laura Unklesbay's practice focuses on litigation and employment law, including employment discrimination and wrongful termination. She is currently working with the Litigation Department on employment matters, personal injury claims, product liability cases, and commercial disputes.

Laura received her undergraduate degree from the University of Arizona, where she graduated with honors, and her J.D. from the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law, graduating magna cum laude. While in law school, she served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Arizona Journal of International and Comparative Law and received several awards including the ALI-CLE Scholarship and Leadership Award, as well as being named a Distinguished Scholar and an Arizona Centennial Fellow.

During her tenure in law school, she served as a Judicial Extern for the Arizona Superior Court in Tucson, clerked for the U.S. Attorneys' Office, and represented veterans in court and before the Army Review Board in Washington, D.C. as part of the Veteran's Advocacy Law Clinic.

Between her undergraduate and law school studies, Laura was a Fulbright Fellow, working in Austria.
