OVERVIEW

Tessa Chrisman practices in the firm's Litigation department, focusing on labor and employment law, education law, personal injury, and commercial disputes. Tessa has been recognized as a Southwest Rising Star by Southwest Super Lawyers®.

Tessa received her undergraduate degrees from the University of New Mexico, where she graduated with honors, and her J.D. from the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University, graduating magna cum laude. While in law school, she served as the Senior Executive Editor on Jurimetrics: The Journal of Law, Science, and Technology. Tessa also served as an intern with the Arizona Supreme Court Staff Attorney's Office and as a Judicial Extern for Judge James O. Browning at the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico.

When she's not working, Tessa enjoys reading historical fiction, watching old movies, and afternoons at the dog park with her two Havanese pups.
